

Colour the Norman Ship

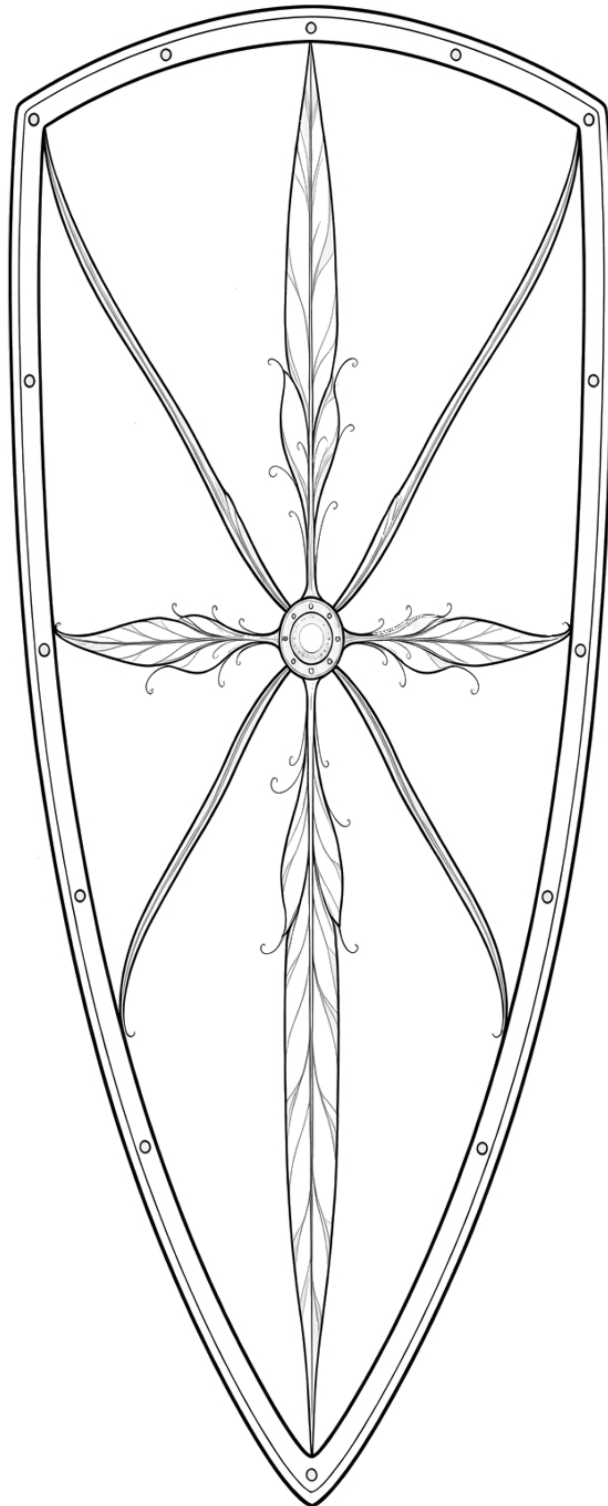

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

Norman ships like this one carried William the Conqueror's army across the Channel in 1066.

Colour the Norman Shield

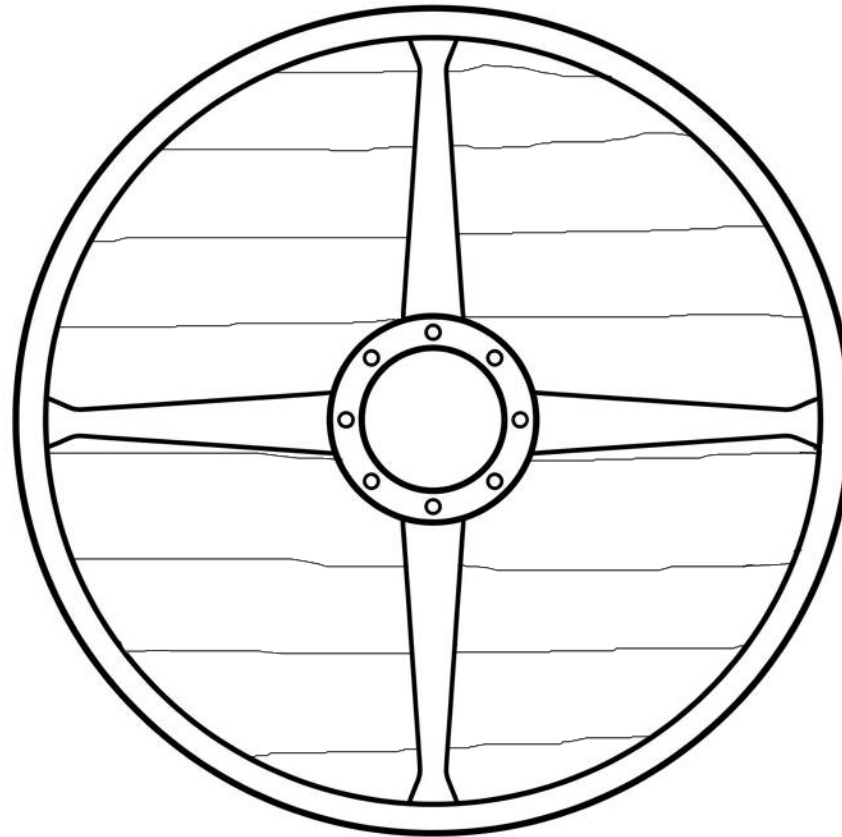

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

Norman soldiers carried tall, kite-shaped shields that protected almost the whole body.

Colour the Saxon Shield

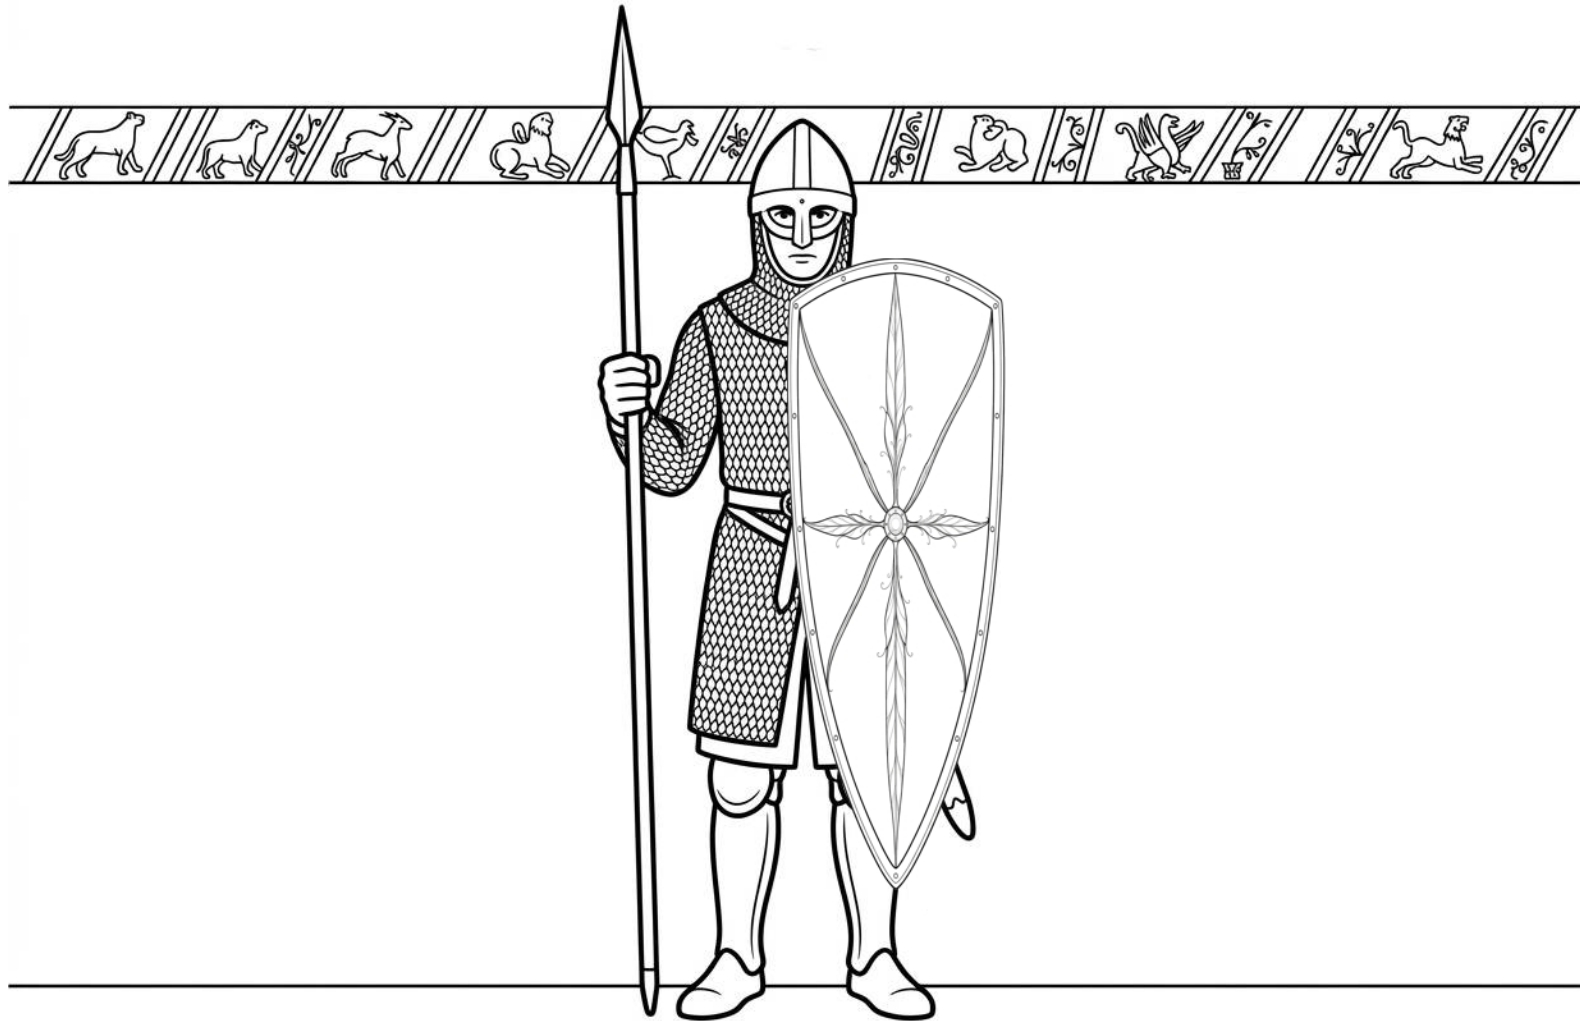

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

English soldiers used round shields with a metal boss in the centre to punch and block.

Colour the Norman Knight

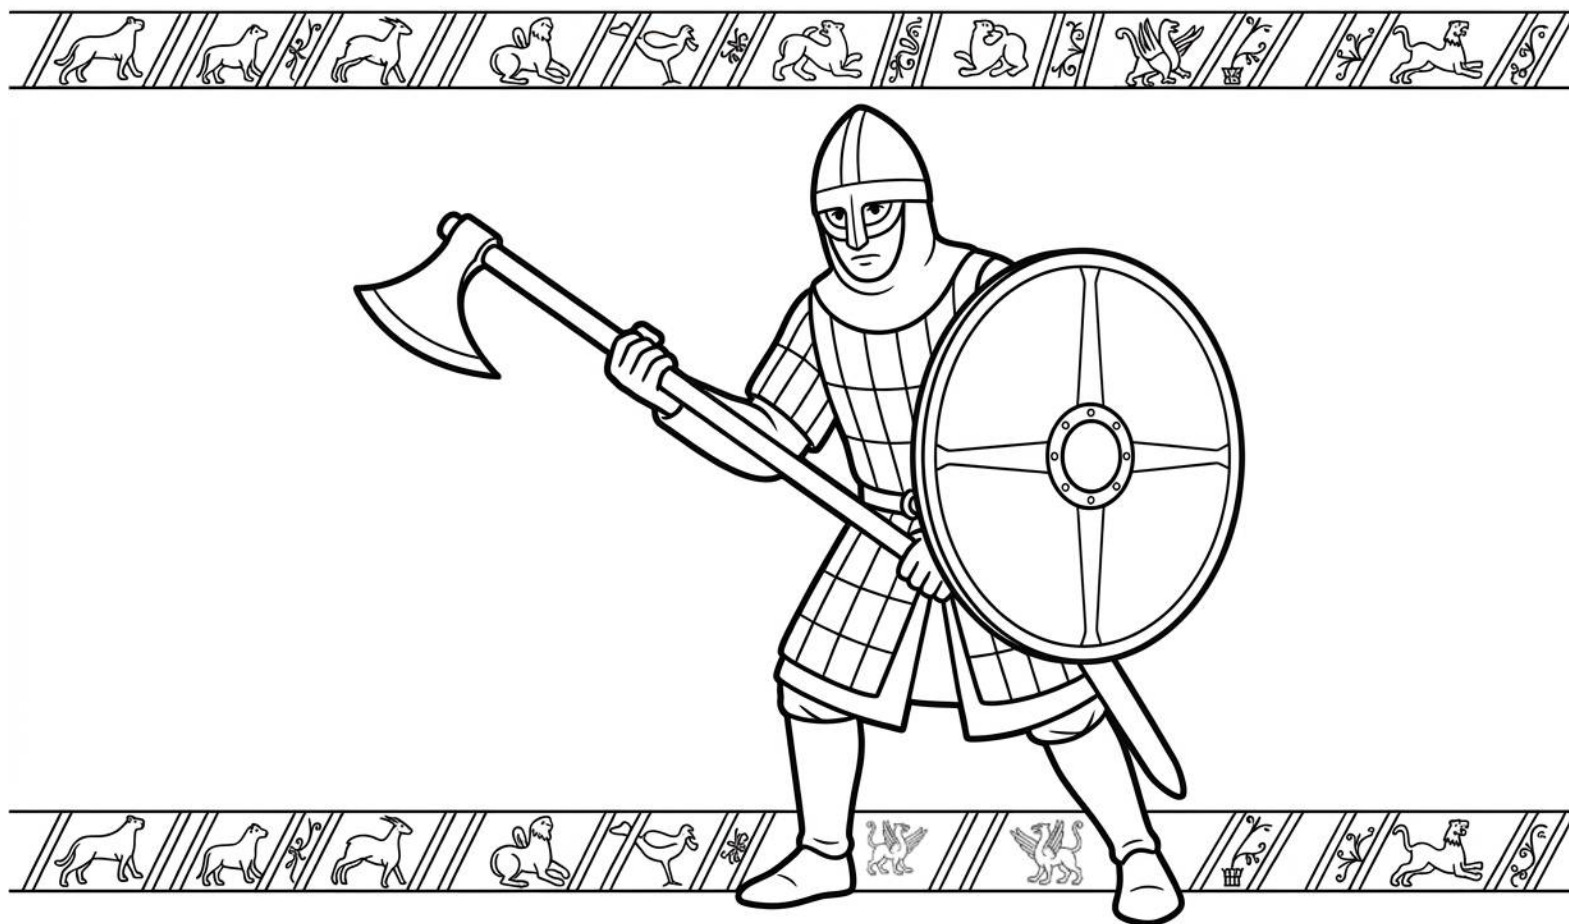

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

Norman knights were clean-shaven with short hair, and fought with a kite shield and spear.

Colour the Saxon Housecarl

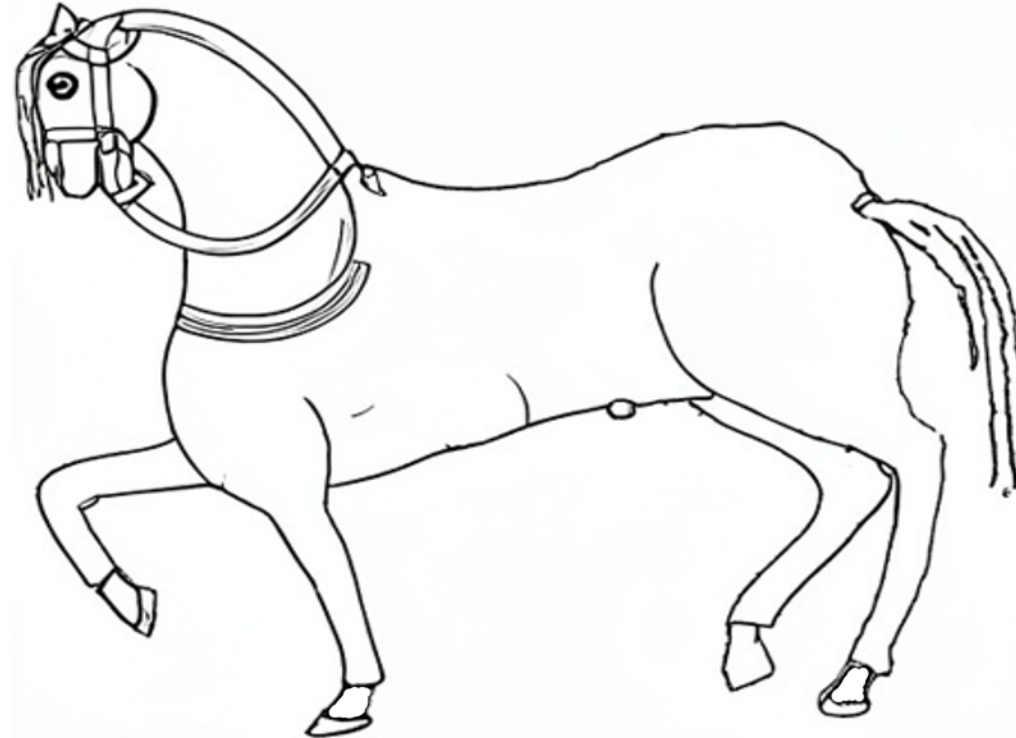

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

English housecarls wore moustaches and longer hair, and swung a fearsome two-handed axe.

Colour the Warhorse

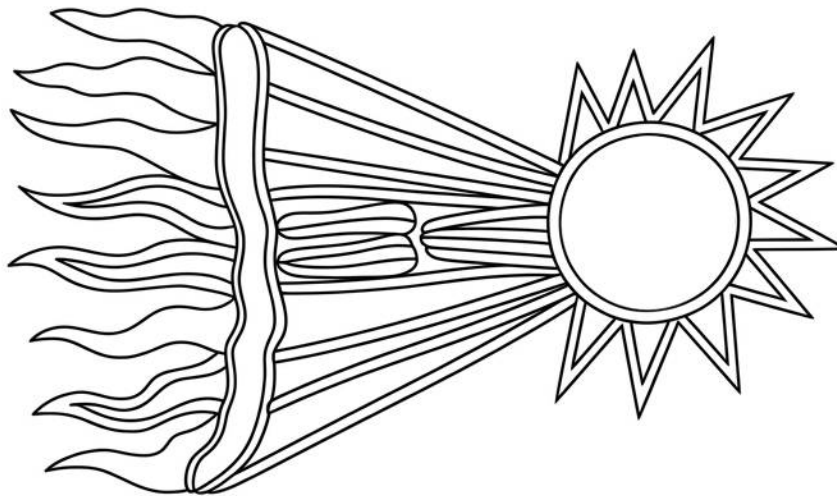

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

Shipping warhorses across the Channel was difficult, but they helped win the Battle of Hastings.

Colour Halley's Comet

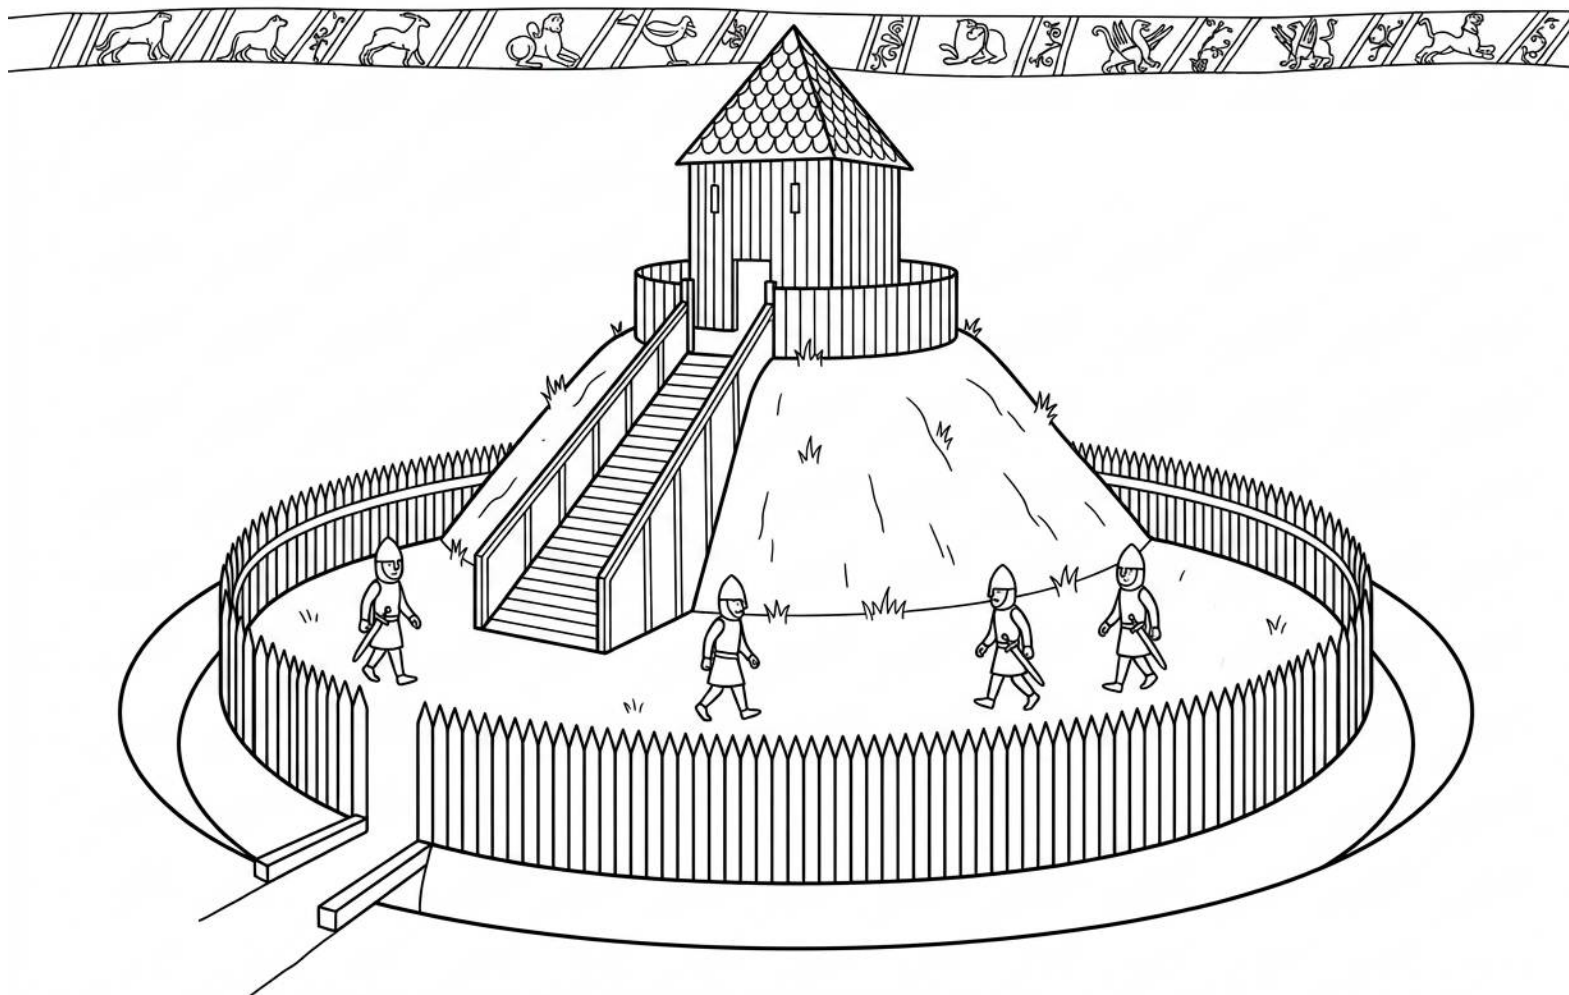

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

A blazing comet appeared in 1066, and people at the time saw it as a terrible omen.

Colour the Motte and Bailey Castle

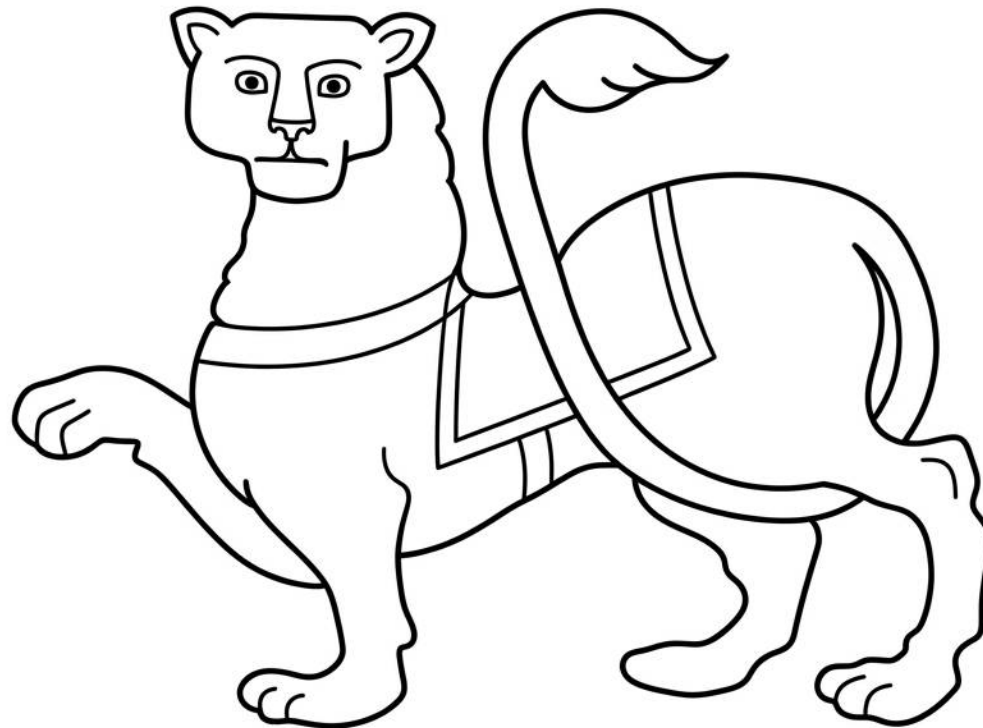

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

Norman castles like this one could be built from earth and timber in just a few days.

Colour the Tapestry Lion

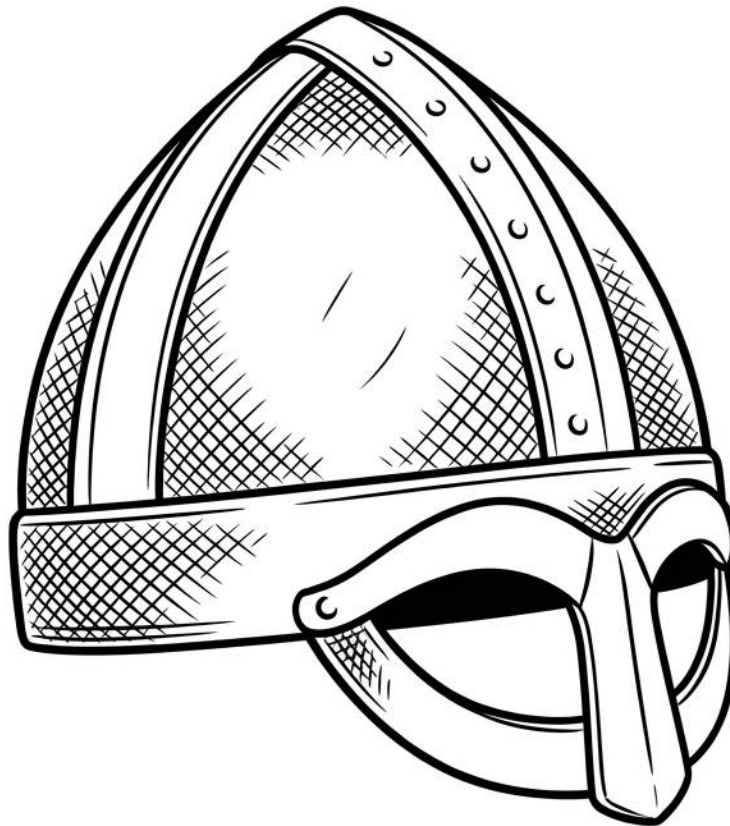

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

Fantastical creatures like this lion fill the decorative borders of the Bayeux Tapestry.

Colour the Norman Helmet

Inspired by the Bayeux Tapestry · thebayeuxtapestry.com

The pointed helmet with a nasal guard was designed to protect against a blow to the face.